FOOD SAFETY & SANITATION INSPECTION REPORT

Address: /// Jacking Davide (Restaurant) PC #: 33 9 3 80 From: Jocal Martiols (Dunkin' Brands, Inc. Representative) Franchisor: Dunkin' Donuts, Baskin-Robbins, Togo's Your restaurant was inspected today for compliance with the Company's Food Safety and Restaurant standards. A copy of the Restaurant Operations Review (Food Safety & Sanitation Inspection Report) is attached to this notice. Any violations of standards are identified as deficiencies in the inspection report. Any deficiency in any of the standards referenced in the inspection report is a default under the terms of your franchise agreement and must be cured in accordance with this notice. The deficiencies must be cured within twenty-four (24) hours from the receipt of this notice. If you are unable to cure a deficiency or deficiencies within the designated cure period, you must immediately contact your Franchise Services Manager to discuss the matter and to request an extension of time to cure the deficiency. Any extension of time granted must be in writing. Receipt of this notice is effective upon personal delivery to the restaurant, is should be determined, as a matter of law, that a longer cure period is required, then that longer period of time is applicable to this notice. Your restaurant will be re-inspected without advance notice following the expiration of time provided in this notice. If all of the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you cure the defaults and pay our legal fees and costs in bringing the action. In addition, the Company may seek termination of your franchise agreement. Failure to timely oure the defaults may also result in loss of any franchise renewal rights that you may have, rights to develop additional restaurants or other valuable rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this day of large the provided in the company. Re-inspection: Company Representative: Date: 4/2/07 to you as Franchisee or in	HAND DELIVERED
Franchisor: Dunkin' Donuts, Baskin-Robbins, Togo's Your restaurant was inspected today for compliance with the Company's Food Safety and Restaurant standards. A copy of the Restaurant Operations Review (Food Safety & Sanitation Inspection Revort) is attached to this notice. Any violations of standards are identified as deficiencies in the inspection report. Any deficiency in any of the standards referenced in the inspection report is a default under the terms of your franchise agreement and must be cured in accordance with this notice. The deficiency or deficiencies within the designated cure period, you must immediately contact your Franchise Services Manager to discuss the matter and to request an extension of time to cure the deficiency. Any extension of time granted must be in writing. Receipt of this notice is effective upon personal delivery to the restaurant. If it should be determined, as a matter of law, that a longer cure period is required, then that longer period of time is applicable to this notice. Your restaurant will be re-inspected without advance notice following the expiration of time provided in this notice. If all of the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you cure the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you may have, rights to develop additional restaurants or other valuable rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this	To: MRAN A/1 (Franchisee) Date: 3/26/07
Franchisor: Dunkin' Donuts, Baskin-Robbins, Togo's Your restaurant was inspected today for compliance with the Company's Food Safety and Restaurant standards. A copy of the Restaurant Operations Review (Food Safety & Sanitation Inspection Report) is attached to this notice. Any violations of standards are identified as deficiencies in the inspection report. Any deficiency in any of the standards referenced in the inspection report is a default under the terms of your franchise agreement and must be cured in accordance with this notice. The deficiencies must be cured within twenty-four (24) hours from the receipt of this notice. If you are unable to cure a deficiency or deficiencies within the designated cure period, you must immediately contact your Franchise Services Manager to discuss the matter and to request an extension of time to cure the deficiency Any extension of time granted must be in writing. Receipt of this notice is effective upon personal delivery to the restaurant. If it should be determined, as a matter of law, that a longer cure period is required, then that longer period of time is applicable to this notice. If all of the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you cure the defaults and pay our legal fees and costs in bringing the action. In addition, the Company was seek termination of your franchise agreement. Failure to timely cure the defaults may also result in loss of any franchise renewal rights that you may have, rights to develop additional restaurants or other valuable rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this day of day of applications. Company Representative: Day Matter Day M
Your restaurant was inspected today for compliance with the Company's Food Safety and Restaurant standards. A copy of the Restaurant Operations Review (Food Safety & Sanitation Inspection Report) is attached to this notice. Any violations of standards are identified as deficiencies in the inspection report. Any deficiency in any of the standards referenced in the inspection report is a default under the terms of your franchise agreement and must be curred in accordance with his notice. If you are unable to cure a deficiency or deficiencies within the designated cure period, you must immediately contact your Franchise Services Manager to discuss the matter and to request an extension of time to cure the deficiency. Any extension of time granted must be in writing. Receipt of this notice is effective upon personal delivery to the restaurant. If it should be determined, as a matter of law, that a longer cure period is required, then that longer period of time is applicable to this notice. If all of the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you cure the defaults and pay our legal lees and costs in bringing the action. In addition, the Company may seek termination of your franchise agreement. Failure to timely cure the defaults may also result in loss of any franchise renewal rights that you may have, rights to develop additional restaurants or other valuable rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this	Tad Marke
the Restaurant Operations Review (Food Safety & Sanitation Inspection Report) is attached to this notice. Any violations of standards are identified as deficiencies in the inspection report. Any deficiency in any of the standards referenced in the inspection report is a default under the terms of your franchise agreement and must be cured in accordance with this notice. The deficiencies must be cured within twenty- four (24) hours from the receipt of this notice. If you are unable to cure a deficiency or deficiencies within the designated cure period, you must immediately contact your Franchise Services Manager to discuss the matter and to request an extension of time to cure the deficiency. Any extension of time granted must be in writing. Receipt of this notice is effective upon personal delivery to the restaurant. If it should be determined, as a matter of law, that a longer cure period is required, then that longer period of time is applicable to this notice. Your restaurant will be re-inspected without advance notice following the expiration of time provided in this notice. If all of the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you cure the defaults and pay our legal lees and costs in bringing the action. In addition, the Company may seek termination of your franchise agreement. Failure to timely cure the defaults may also result in loss of any franchise renewal rights that you may have, rights to develop additional restaurants or other valuable rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this day of franchise renewal rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this day of franchise renewal rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this day of franchise renewal rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this defaults may also result in loss of any franchise renewal rights. The province	Franchisor: Dunkin Donuts, Baskin-Robbins, Togo's deficiency or deficiencies within the designated cure period, you must immediately contact your Franchise Services Manager to discuss the matter and to request an extension of time to cure the deficiency. Any extension of time granted must be in writing. Receipt of this notice is effective upon personal delivery to the restaurant. If it should be determined, as a matter of law, that a longer cure period is required, then that longer period of time is applicable to this notice. Your restaurant will be re-inspected without advance notice following the expiration of time provided in this notice. If all of the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you cure the defaults and pay our legal fees and costs in bringing the action. In addition, the Company may seek termination of your franchise agreement. Failure to timely cure the defaults may also result in loss of any franchise renewal rights that you may have, rights to develop additional restaurants or other valuable rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this Aday of Company Representative: Company Represen	Your restaurant was inspected today for compliance with the Company's Food Safety and Restaurant standards. A copy of the Restaurant Operations Review (Food Safety & Sanitation Inspection Report) is attached to this notice. Any violations of standards are identified as deficiencies in the inspection report. Any deficiency in any of the standards referenced in the inspection report is a default under the terms of your franchise agreement and must be cured in accordance with this notice.
the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you cure the defaults and pay our legal fees and costs in bringing the action. In addition, the Company may seek termination of your franchise agreement. Failure to timely cure the defaults may also result in loss of any franchise renewal rights that you may have, rights to develop additional restaurants or other valuable rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this	The deficiencies must be cured within twenty- four (24) hours from the receipt of this notice. If you are unable to cure a deficiency or deficiencies within the designated cure period, you must immediately contact your Franchise Services Manager to discuss the matter and to request an extension of time to cure the deficiency. Any extension of time granted must be in writing. Receipt of this notice is effective upon personal delivery to the restaurant. If it should be determined, as a matter of law, that a longer cure period is required, then that longer period of time is applicable to this notice.
Company Representative: Company Representative: Company Represent	Your restaurant will be re-inspected without advance notice following the expiration of time provided in this notice. If all of the defaults are not cured by that time, the Company may file a lawsuit against you seeking an order from the court that you cure the defaults and pay our legal fees and costs in bringing the action. In addition, the Company may seek termination of your franchise agreement. Failure to timely cure the defaults may also result in loss of any franchise renewal rights that you may have, rights to develop additional restaurants or other valuable rights that you may have with the Company. This notice is being hand-delivered this
Company Representative: Company Representative: Confident Confident Company Representative: Confident Company Representative: Confident Confident Company Representative: Confident Confident	care of your employee. EMPLOYEES HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED TO DELIVER THIS NOTICE OR NOTIFY YOU IMMEDIATELY.
Date: Signature) Date: 5/26/07 Date: 4/2/07 Franchisee/Manager: Davendru Summuru (Signature) (Signature) DAVENDRA SAMALOO (Print) DAVENDRA SAMALOO (Print)	First Inspection: Re-inspection:
Date: 3/26/07 Date: 4/2/07 Franchisee/Manager: Davendru Summor (Signature) (Print) DAVENDRA SAMALOO (Print)
(Print) (Print)	Date: 3/26/07 Date: 4/2/07 Franchisee/Manager: Franchisee/Manager: Supplied Signature)
, , Date , , , - , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	(Print) (Print) (Print)

This notice supplements any Notice of Default and/or Termination previously sent, relating to this restaurant. This notice does not supersede any prior Notice nor does it constitute a waiver of any rights pursuant to any Notice.